impactful practices changing lives inside and outside the classroom.

This month we are pleased to feature College of the Siskiyous and Windward Community College! Please take a look at the excerpts below, and check out www.accjconthemove.org for the full featured articles.

College of the Siskiyous

College of the Siskiyous (COS) is a California public community college near the northern border of Oregon serving approximately 45,000 residents in Siskiyou County, one of California's largest counties! COS is widely recognized for its excellent programs in the humanities and arts, the sciences and technology, and in athletics, as well as career and technical programs in business/computer science, EMS-Paramedic, fire, and welding. Its Fire/Emergency Response Technology Program is approved as an accredited regional academy for the State Fire Marshal's Office and prepares students to be highly competitive candidates for positions in the Fire Technology industry.

Windward Community College

Windward Community College (WCC) serves over 2,500 students from the Ko'olau region of O'ahu and beyond, and is part of the University of Hawai'i Community College System. The innovative college offers programs in the arts and sciences and embodies a deep commitment to Hawaiian knowledge and supporting educational access for Native Hawaiians. The college's Sustainable Agriculture and Plant Food Production and Technology programs showcase that commitment and help support healthy living and island self-sustainability, as well as perpetuate Hawaiian knowledge and ancient native plant-based medicinal healing practices.
