impactful practices changing lives inside and outside the classroom.

This month we are pleased to feature two programs at Santa Rosa Junior College! Please take a look at the excerpts below, and check out www.accjconthemove.org for the full featured articles.

Santa Rosa Junior College (SRJC) was founded in 1918 and is the tenth oldest public two-year college in California. The college has blossomed into a multi-campus college serving over 20,000 students in Sonoma County with a main campus in the heart of Santa Rosa featuring beautiful turn-of-the-century ivy covered buildings and state-of-the-art classroom and laboratory facilities. The college has a permanent branch campus, two additional teaching locations, and a self-sustaining farm, which generates income and provides hands-on learning opportunities for students.

Santa Rosa Junior College - Lanzamiento Initiative

SRJC is a formally designated Hispanic Serving Institution by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). In 2020, they were awarded a Title VI/ DHSI grant by ED and established the Lanzamiento Initiative, which is designed to strengthen and enhance the academic pipeline of Latinx and low-income students by increasing access to college programs, improving course completion and success rates, and increasing transfer, degree completion, and/or certificate completion in the targeted population. Lanzamiento is a strategic, research-based, and best practice response to systemic challenges and opportunities.
